INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE TEACHER

Minoru Nozoe

AMERICAN food . . . JAPANESE style!

Minoru receives a school yearbook from Mr. Davis

Mr. Minoru Nozoe, a Japanese teacher, came to the United States under the auspices of the Council of International Educational Exchange. Minoru was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Wilbeck during his three week stay here.

Minoru, who teaches English in a Japanese high school, wanted to learn the American way of family and school life in addition to improving his English speaking ability. During his visit to PHS, he observed classes and participated in student and faculty activities. Everyone enjoyed learning about Japanese family and school life from Minoru's slide presentations and talks.

ATHLETIC BANQUET

On Friday night, April 2, a potluck supper and awards program was held to honor Primghar High School's athletes and cheerleaders. The meal was held in the hot lunch room and after eating, those people in attendance transferred to the gymnasium to hear Mr. Dewey Halford, the guest speaker for the evening. Mr. Halford was introduced by master of ceremonies Mr. Arnold Charlton. Halford is head football coach at Morningside College and his topic he discussed was "Being a real champion, that puts forth a full effort." Following Coach Halford, Primghars three head coaches, Schnack, Rumelhart, and Carlson proceeded to present awards to those participating in football and basketball. Mrs. Marilyn Ewoldt handed out cheerleading awards and Rod Muilenburg, student council president, recognized the champion volley ball team.
